1. German Language

Course Title: German Language (elementary, intermediate or advanced)

Credits: 6

Subject Category: Foreign Language/Culture

Program Name: Berlin Residential Program

Country: Germany

Host Institution: Studienforum Berlin e.V.

Description: The study of language at DIE NEUE SCHULE, an international language school in Berlin. Intensive language learning at all levels with other international students. Course levels and curriculum follow the Common European Union Framework of References for language acquisition. All instructors are specially trained in German language acquisition and pedagogy. Students with no prior German language experience enroll in the A1 level. At all levels: emphasis on active listening and speaking and reading/spelling abilities. Intermediate and advanced levels help prepare students acquire all the skills required for independent interaction in the society or to pass German university entrance exams. The course is conducted intensively during two months of the semester (140h). Grades are dependent on several factors including the overall progress made during the course.
